

Dr. Saket Bihari

Associate Professor, Development Studies

E: saketian@gmail.com

Dr. Bihari earned his Ph.D. in Sociology from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. He has over twenty years of teaching and research experience on issues of globalization, gender and school education. He has taught courses on Indian Social Systems, Rural Governance, Sociological Theories, and Techniques in Social Research. His research interests include globalization, cultural capital and school success.

He started his career as an academic after getting selected from Uttar Pradesh Higher Education Commission, Allahabad. He has conducted over six national and international conferences. He has presented over 30 research papers in national and international conferences. He has approximately 30 publications to his credit. He has also authored two books recently, namely "Sociology of Consumerism (2017)" and "Globalization and Cultural Change in India (2019)". He has also conducted approximately twenty-five third party assessments for the different central sector schemes of the Government of India. He has acted as members in different internal committees of the Institute. He is a life member of Indian Sociological Society. On invitation, Dr. Saket Bihari has worked as reviewer for SAGE publications.

COURSE: Indian Social Systems

MODULE

- ◆ Introduction to Indian Social Systems
- ◆ The structural Features of Indian Social System
- ◆ Tradition and Modernity in Indian Society
- ◆ Rural-Urban Nexus: Continuity and Change
- ◆ Structural-functional, Indological and Subaltern Approaches
- ◆ Gender Relations in Indian Society
- ◆ Ethnocentrism and xenocentrism
- ◆ Educational Attainment in Class Oriented Society
- ◆ Social Movements in India
- ◆ Public Policy and Sociological Responses
- ◆ Global Currents, Local responses and Social hierarchy

 Video

 PPT

 Resource Material

 Quiz