

Prof. K.K. Pandey
Professor, Urban Management
E: kkpandey9236@gmail.com

COURSE: Urban Governance

MODULE

- ◆ Emerging Focus on Urban Development and Administration
- ◆ Good Urban Governance Norms and Application Process
- ◆ Urbanization Trends and Implications
- ◆ Urban Sector Policies and Programmes
- ◆ Urban Planning concepts and Application
- ◆ Urban Housing and Land Development
- ◆ Municipal Finance
- ◆ Urban services and Infrastructure
- ◆ Inclusive City (Urban Environment, Climate Change and Quality of Life)
- ◆ Smart Urban Governance and Solutions

Dr. K.K. Pandey, Professor, Urban Management and Coordinator, Centre for Urban Studies at IIPA holds Ph.D in Urban Finance and PG Diploma in Housing Planning from Institute for Housing and Urban Development Studies, Netherlands (1985), two month course in Urban Management from University of Birmingham (1994) and Course on Population Studies from EWC, University of Hawaii, USA (1991). Dr. Pandey has also completed online course on Municipal Finance in 2001 from UNESCAP and University of Cardiff UK.

Dr. Pandey has been member of seven UN expert committees on urban finance, governance, Training of Trainers, leadership, pro-poor PPP, sustainable development and urban management. He is also member of Executive Council of IIPA and steering committee to revise NCR Plan for National Capital Region. He also headed a study group of the Government of India on Economic Activity in the National Capital Region.

Dr. Pandey also has been a member of several working groups on different issues related to urban management and finance. He has coordinated empirical research, training and advisory services on matters related to urban governance, infrastructure and housing. He also has several publications to his credit. He has also travelled extensively on various academic assignments within India and abroad.

